Did you know...

Popular so-called 'the yellow cards' were created in the 3M laboratory by accident. During research works on a new formula of a super-strong glue - to a great surprise - the super-weak glue was created. Only after several years, one of the company's employees figured out how to make use of it. There are many possibilities of their use. Who among us has not used them for a more or less picky joke?
